

The Seattle Times

Winner of Eight Pulitzer Prizes

Business / Technology

Originally published September 28, 2011 at 11:19 AM | Page modified September 28, 2011 at 1:17 PM

U District apartment project started

Seattle's Schuster Group has broken ground on a 97-unit apartment complex in the University District.

Seattle's Schuster Group has broken ground on a 97-unit apartment complex in the University District.

Top comments

Hide / Show comments

The seven-story project, dubbed Muriel's Landing, is on University Way Northeast near Northeast 52nd Street. Schuster says it will be finished in November 2012.

No comments have been posted to this article.

Start the conversation >